IWCC 2019

Dear bar bastards & mixology nerds,

we are more than happy to welcome you this year in Loipersdorf for the second "IWCC Winter Edition" in the history of the International Wörthersee Cocktail Cup.

The IWCC is known as one of the oldest cocktail championship in the international bar scene and brings together some of the world's best mixologists from more than 20 different countries. We are also very proud of our young national competitors to encourage their talent and offer them the opportunity to compete in an international event like this.

As well as a fiercely contested competition you will have the chance to rub shoulders with the best international bartenders and learn from some of the industry's most influential people, those at the very top of their game.

We hope that you let your every-day routine fade away and enjoy the time with us, make new friends and learn more about inspiring bar culture in Loipersdorf at Hotel Sonnreich.

With delicious wishes,

Sandra Sifkovits, Mario Hofferer & the MH Cocktail Entertainment Crew
